Prime Minister R. Premadasa will inaugurate the first meeting of the Governing Council of the South-Asia Co-operative Environment Programme at the BMICH this morning.

DAILY NEWS, THURSDAY

JANUARY 27, 1983.

Mr K. H. J. Wijedasa, Additional Secretary, Ministry of Local Government, and Chairman of the Environment Committee, Sri Lanka, chaired the workshop held from January 21 to 25 to prepare the groundwork for the meeting of the Council.

Ministerial representatives from the eight SACEP member countries — India, Maldives, Sri Lanka, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Afghanistan, Iran and Bhutan — along with officials, will attend the meeting.
